

Cymbeline by William Shakespeare

Read by Tony Addison, Craig Franklin, Tomas Peter and Sonia.
Total running time: 3:48:54

Cymbeline is one of the last plays Shakespeare wrote, classified by scholars as a late romance or comedy. It's famous for featuring a highly convoluted plot that oftentimes feels like a grab bag of elements from Shakespeare's greatest hits: we have virtuous lovers, a temperamental monarch, a conniving stepmother, an untrustworthy Italian, an arrogant clod, kidnapped siblings, cross-dressing, battles, a devious murder plot, and (of course) some shocking plot twists.

And to perform it all? Three men (Tony Addison, Craig Franklin, and Tomas Peter) and one woman (Sonia), determined to give you a performance of this oft-neglected piece that you will never forget. You thought you knew your Shakespeare? Well, think again!

- Summary by Tomas Peter

This recording is in the public domain and may be reproduced, distributed, or modified without permission. For more information or to volunteer, visit librivox.org.

Cover picture: "Imogen" by Herbert Gustave Carmichael Schmalz (1856–1935)
Copyright expired in U.S., Canada, EU. and all countries with author's life +70 yrs laws.

- Cover design by Sonia.

This design is in the public domain.

Cymbeline by William Shakespeare

Cymbeline by William Shakespeare